Selling or Sharing of Personal Information

We do not sell or share your personal information with third parties. We also do not knowingly sell, share, use for targeted advertising, or disclose the personal information of children under the age of 16.

Sensitive Personal Information

Under California law, certain types of personal information are considered “sensitive” personal information and requires additional data privacy rights and obligations. We only collect account login information to provide access to the Material Traceability System, which may be considered sensitive personal information. We only use the account login information for certain limited and permitted purposes, such as to provide the goods or services you requested; prevent, detect, and investigate security incidents; resist malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal actions; and verify or maintain the quality of our Services. Because we use your sensitive personal information for these limited purposes, we do not offer a limit use and disclosure of sensitive personal information right under California law. Please Contact Us if you have any questions.

Your Rights

The California Privacy Rights Act (“CPRA”) affords California residents certain rights with respect to their personal information, subject to certain exceptions. Subject to certain limitations you have the following rights:

- (4) Right to Data Portability. You have the right to receive the information under right (3) in a format, to the extent technically feasible, that is portable, usable, and allows you to transmit the personal information to a person without impediment, where the processing is carried out by automated means.
- (5) Rights Related to Sharing for Cross-Context Behavioral Advertising or Sale. “We do not share your personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising or sell your personal information. Please Contact Us below if you have any questions.”
- (6) Rights Related to Sensitive Personal Information. As described in the Sensitive Personal Information section above, we only use your sensitive personal information for permitted purposes. Additional Disclosure for California Residents

California law permits residents of California to request certain details about how their information is shared with third parties for direct marketing purposes. If you are a California resident and would like to make such a request, please contact us at sales@weldbend.com.
